MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Science and Technology

SUBJECT: Telephone Call Re [REDACTED]

25X1A

1. This memorandum is for information only.

2. Following the 7 July 1966 telephone conversation between Messrs Carl Duckett and John Parangosky re subject, [REDACTED] Navy REWSON Office, was invited by Mr. Parangosky to amplify his requests for meetings with the DD/S&T and DCI on behalf of the Chief of Navy Material, RADM Ralph L. Shifley. It became apparent immediately that the Navy REWSON office staff, primarily, wanted to visit the newly appointed DCI in order to acquaint him with certain past Navy-CIA relationships and to solicit Agency contracting support for a new Navy effort. Attached (Enclosure #1) is an unofficial and as yet unapproved draft copy of a Navy letter, subject "Requirement for Establishment of a Technical Service Contract for Navy REWSON Effort" which [REDACTED] gave the undersigned. This letter outlines the contemplated support that the Chief of Navy Material probably will request of the Agency in the near future.

25X1A

[REDACTED] agreed that there was no need for the Chief of Navy Material, at this time, to raise this matter directly with the DCI. Instead, [REDACTED] agreed to have [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] affiliated with the Navy REWSON

3. The attached background papers (Enclosures #2 and #3) shed some light on the last visit to the DCI of Navy affiliated REWSON people.

25X1A

4. [ ] was told that the undersigned would arrange a time for a meeting with Mr. Carl Duckett, Acting DD/S&T. The main topic of discussion will be the matter noted in Enclosure #1.
